Faculty Meeting
March 5th, 1935 at 5:00 P. M.

Members absent: Mr. Beckhelm, Mr. Davis, Mr. Gross, Mr. Macgregor, Mr. McCartney, Mr. Malloy, Miss Pearce, Mr. Riley, Mr. Wooster, and Mr. Yeager.

~~Mr. Beckhelm~~, Mr. Gross, Mr. Macgregor, Hooster Mr. McCartney, and Miss Pearce were excused because of illness. Mr. Davis was out of town with the glee club.

Meeting was called to order with Dean Agnew presiding. Dean Lee made a report of the recommendation of the Curriculum Committee in connection with grades which is as follows:

"Recommend that unsatisfactory grades of D's and F's for freshmen only be turned in at the end of the six weeks and that grades for all students be turned in at the end of nine weeks."

Dr. Rarick said that if any faculty member had a suggestion to make in this regard that it should be made directly to the Curriculum Committee.

Dean Lee made a report of the financial standing of the flower fund. Dr. Rarick asked that this matter be referred to the sub-committee of the Faculty Relations Committee.

Dean Agnew explained the plan for regular faculty meetings with reports of various meetings which had been attended by faculty members and talks of professional nature from the departments. She then asked Dr. Rarick to give his report of the meeting of the American Association of Teachers Colleges and the National Education Association which was held in Atlantic City in February.

Following the report of the meeting, Dr. Rarick made some announcements regarding the reports of the faculty committees and the relationship of the group with the Chamber of Commerce.

Meeting adjourned.
