

JIIBR Preparation Guidelines

Authors must observe the following guidelines in the preparation of their manuscripts for submission to and/or publication in the Journal of International & Interdisciplinary Business Research (JIIBR).

1. Please submit your manuscript in MS Word format. Any version of MS Word is acceptable. Manuscripts submitted in a format other than MS Word (e.g., in .pdf format) cannot be reviewed.
2. Papers should be no more than 8,000 words in length, including references and the works cited. Page numbers should be included in the bottom right-hand corner throughout the manuscript.
3. Please remove all author-identifying information from the manuscript prior to submission. Pertinent author-identifying information, such as acknowledgements of institutions, research assistants, and funding sources, can be added as needed after the review process concludes.
4. Each manuscript should include on its cover page an abstract of no more than 250 words, in which the subject matter and principal contributions of the paper are synopsised. The cover page should also include a list of up to five key words or phrases that reflect the major ideas and themes of the paper.
5. Papers published in JIIBR will observe “APA format.” In particular, authors must ensure that their citations and works cited adhere to the current edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (specifically, to Chapters 6, “Crediting Sources,” and 7, “Reference Examples”). The paper’s organization and headings should also comply with APA format. Papers not substantially in compliance with APA will be returned to the author(s) for re-formatting prior to review.
6. JIIBR welcomes and encourages submissions from scholars around the world, including scholars whose native language is not English. However, JIIBR is published in American English only. Authors whose native language is not English may utilize an editorial service to enhance the linguistic and grammatical soundness of their manuscripts prior to submission—provided that any such service will be limited to linguistic and grammatical editing, and that the authors will be actively involved in any such revisions of their manuscripts. The resulting manuscript must reflect the original thoughts and ultimate linguistic and grammatical choices of the author(s) in such a manner that the resulting manuscript remains the bona fide original work of the author(s).
7. Questions concerning the preparation of manuscripts can be directed to JIIBR’s editor at jiibr@fhsu.edu.
